

Ascendant Completes the Sale of Safe-Flo Dental Products to Crosstex International

IRVINE, Calif., December 11, 2017 -- Ascendant Capital Markets, LLC (www.ascendant.com) announced today the completion of the sale of its client, Safe-Flo Dental Products ("Safe-Flo") to Crosstex International, Inc., a subsidiary of Cantel Medical Corp. ("Crosstex").

Safe-Flo Dental Products is a dental products manufacturer that, through its innovative, proprietary platform, sells patented infection prevention and control products (IP&C) to dentists that helps prevent cross-contamination of bodily fluids and can be used with every patient seen in a dental office.

Crosstex, since its founding in 1953, has steadily grown to become one of the world's leading infection prevention and control (IP&C) entities, delivering products and services for patients, and other healthcare providers, which improve outcomes and help save lives. Crosstex is a recognized leader for its portfolio of Personal Protection Equipment (PPE), Dental Unit Waterline Treatments, Chemistries, Sterilization, Preventives, Nitrous-Oxide Equipment, and Single-Use Disposable products which are sold throughout the world in more than 100 countries.

Ascendant Managing Director Dr. Christopher Gayde led the Safe-Flo transaction on behalf of Ascendant in the capacity of exclusive financial advisor. As both a former practicing dentist and a current head of Ascendant's Dental Investment Banking Group, Dr. Gayde is uniquely qualified to understand the needs and concerns of dental product manufacturers and dental group owners who are contemplating a liquidity event.

"Having Dr. Gayde as our Investment Banker was crucial to getting our sale completed," said Rich Bushman, President of Safe-Flo Dental Products. "We appreciate his knowledge of the buyers in the dental field, and his ability to help us navigate the intricacies of this type of a transaction," he added.

Dr. Gayde and his team of Managing Directors at Ascendant have closed more than 300 M&A and corporate finance transactions over a broad range of industries. The Ascendant team has focused on privately owned businesses with revenues in the $10 million to $200 million range for M&A transactions and smaller emerging growth companies for corporate finance transactions.
